

Dear Ram families,

It's the last week before Spring Break and many events are taking place at Twin Peaks. There's a Wind Ensemble Festival on Tuesday at the Poway Center for Performing Arts from 6-8pm. Third quarter report cards will be sent home on Wednesday and there's also an Advanced Band Festival on Wednesday at the Poway Center for Performing Arts from 3:30-5:30pm.

Twin Peaks ASB elections are just around the corner. Visit our website to download an application. Applications are due to Mrs. Daher this Friday.

A couple weeks ago I mentioned that Twin Peaks placed 1st in participants for Chelsea's Run. To celebrate this accomplishment, the Chelsea's Light Foundation is catering lunch for us this Wednesday. If you were a participant representing the Rams, come and celebrate with us in the MPR during both lunches and be sure to wear your t-shirt supporting Chelsea's Run!

Have you ever wondered what today's teenagers really think about communication, depression, academic pressure, etc.? This Tuesday is the first of two presentations where you are invited to join together with other parents and discuss what teenagers really think and wish their parents knew. The event takes place at Rancho Bernardo High School from 6:30-8:45pm. Register online at whatiwishmyparentsknew.com and see the attached flyer for more information.

I have one last reminder and that is to please check the lost and found cart outside the library for clothes or other items you may be missing. During Spring Break, all left over items will be donated to a local charity.

That's it for now. I look forward to seeing you all tomorrow; and remember, it's a 5/1/3 day.

Sincerely,

Dr. Burke
